fall-winter SAMPLER

dear friends.....

We're kicking off our twentieth anniversary with a new publication—the sampler you hold in your hands. As you browse through these pages, you'll discover a sampling of what Stampin' Up! offers—everything from stamp sets and Designer Series paper to punches and Rub-Ons.

I'm an avid antique collector, so I fell in love with Puns from the Past (page 5), and I adore simple, elegant images, so Dreams Du Jour (on this page) is another favourite. Also, check out our new line of In Color® products. I can't wait to start stamping with these fresh, lively colours!

What you see here is only the beginning. If you're like me, this sampler isn't nearly enough! You can find more of our product offering in the Idea Book & Catalogue, which offers more than 500 additional stamp images and an even greater array of stamping and paper-crafting accessories—plus hundreds of project ideas.

Thank you for celebrating our twentieth anniversary milestone with us!

Shelli Gardner
Cofounder and CEO

All stamp sets in this sampler are die cut.
